The Importance of Praying for Christian Unity

Today begins the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Perhaps as this week begins, we can imagine Jesus giving us the same invitation that he gave in today's Gospel reading: "Come, and you will see" Come and see. That is the real answer to our prayer for unity. Come and let Jesus teach you about his plan for a united church. Spend time with him so that he can soften your heart toward your fellow Christians. Listen to his voice so that you can filter out the voices of suspicion, division, and condemnation that keep us separated. This approach may seem naïve at first. After all, church history is filled with tragedy. Believers have lost their jobs or their homes because they belonged to the wrong church. Shouldn't more be done than simply praying? Yes and no. Yes, more should be done. And it is being done. Scholars, theologians, and church leaders continue to meet in dialogue to resolve differences and sort through our painful past. But no matter how much study or dialogue takes place, it will bring about very little change if it is not coupled with sincere, humble prayer. Pope John Paul II once wrote: "If Christians, despite their divisions, can grow ever more united in common prayer around Christ, they will grow in the awareness of how little divides them in comparison to what unites them". Do you want to see the broken body of Christ healed? Then come to Jesus. Let him write his word on your heart. As you do, divisive thoughts will fall away. You will have a greater respect for everyone who is baptized into Christ. And you will become an agent of unity and healing!

GOSPEL REFLECTION In today's Gospel, Andrew led his brother Peter to Jesus. Who are the people in your life who led you to Christ? Thank God for these people.

PLEASE CONSIDER POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER REQUESTS FOR THE MONTH OF JANUARY:

That those from diverse religious traditions and all people of good will may work together for peace ...

AND

That in this year dedicated to consecrated life, religious men and women may rediscover the joy of following Christ and strive to serve the poor with zeal ...

ALSO BISHOP VÁSQUEZ' PRAYER INTENTION TODAY:

For the young people of our diocese and their chaperones who are gathered at the Diocesan Catholic Youth Conference in Waco ...

WE PRAY for those about to attend Fan into Flame retreat next weekend and for those participating in the Boots on the Ground pro-life conference and the pro-life rally next weekend.
