EAT AND LIVE FOREVER

There was one brief, shining moment in the Bible where things were pretty good. We had safety, and security, we had the Presence of God walking among us. We had a nice garden. And then we blew it. We had only been given one “thou shalt not,” and we couldn’t manage it. So we ate of the tree. The Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. But, you know, there was another tree in the Garden...The Tree of Life. And what happened when you ate of this tree? Well, when God talks of the consequences of eating from the Tree of Knowledge: Then the Lord said, ‘See, the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil; and now, he might reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life, and eat, and live forever.’ So...obviously...we ate from the wrong tree. We were never told that we couldn’t eat from the Tree of Life...but we ate from the tree that we were told not to. We could have lived forever. In that garden.

With God. We were so close. It could have been great. In John chapter 6, Jesus talks about this bread in a familiar way: This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever. Jesus is speaking of himself. He’s speaking of the benefits of believing and abiding in him. Of consuming him, and making him a part of us, and us a part of him. And... he’s so very clearly identifying himself as the new creation. The new garden. The new tree. The new fruit. In Eden it could have been great, but we messed it up. But, now, in Jesus it can be great again. And, great forever.
