Our Lady of Wisdom relies on Bobcat Catholics like you for more than half the resources necessary to bring students of Texas State closer to their Catholic faith. Contact our Development Director, Zane Stehling, to join this mission at 512-392-5925.

WORLD MEETING OF FAMILIES CONGRESS kicked off in Philadelphia Tuesday, Sept. 22nd. Faithful and clergy from all around the world gathered to pray, study, and celebrate as the struggles and triumphs of the family are brought front and center. For those who aren't able to attend the gathering in Philadelphia, there are still plenty of ways to participate in the celebration: namely, by praying, studying, and celebrating wherever you are. From Emmaus Road author Katie Warner's book Head & Heart: Becoming Spiritual Leaders for Your Family, here are five suggestions. 1) Prioritize Prayer St. Teresa of Avila offers a simple and powerful prayer philosophy: If you don't pray sometimes, you can't pray always. Seize those "sometimes" moments to intercede for family members or to give thanks for God's providence.

2) Identify Your Family Mission Writing out your family mission will give you the power to unify, focus, and guide your family to achieve your goals.

3) Take Up Your Cross God does not let our suffering go to waste. If we accept our trials, He allows us to share in the redemptive value of the Cross by uniting our sufferings to His, for the sake of building up the body of Christ.

4) Cultivate Peace God wants to free us from the stress that plagues our families. Simplifying our lives, honoring the Lord's Day, and maintaining personal balance and rest are all ways we can safeguard peace in our homes.

5) Be Who God Made You to Be The best way to strengthen your family is to be an active participant in God's plan for your life. By pursuing sanctity, you'll become a source of inspiration and transformation in your own family.

PLEASE CONSIDER POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR SEPTEMBER:

That opportunities for education and employment may increase for all young people ...

That catechists may give witness by living in a way consistent with the faith they proclaim ...

ALSO BISHOP VASQUEZ' PRAYER INTENTION FOR TODAY:

For this local community of disciples that we may courageously support and challenge one another to more faithfully reveal Christ in our daily actions...

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Jesus teaches us that what we do matters. Discipleship is not in a name but in our actions that announce we are followers of Christ. What actions or habits do we have in our lives that fulfill the work of Christ? What do we need to remove because it is contrary to the way of Christ?
