The Epiphany of the Lord
 Isaiah 60: 1-6
 Ephesians 3: 2-3A, 5-6
 Matthew 2: 1-12

Today as we celebrate the beginning of a new year, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Mother of God, the oldest of all Marian feasts in our liturgy. Perhaps we, in our personal emotional involvement with Mary, even lose sight of her genuine place in our faith and Church. We run the very real risk of simply sentimentalizing her, and thereby trivializing Christ. What the church offers is its own spiritual and prayerful experience, its reflections on her throughout the millennia. And this is to the good, because what we today understand of our Lady is a reflection of the Church's prayer and insight, of the Church being led by the Holy Spirit to develop an understanding of why Mary does in fact have a special role in our lives. But we ought always to remember that development in the Church is about one thing only: in our attempt to understand God, we grow in comprehension of the meaning of the Incarnation in our world and life. It is in this light that we must reflect on the Mother of God, mother of Jesus Incarnate. And just as Mary interpreted and pondered all things in her heart, so does the Church reflect on her and the Incarnation through its liturgy, its writings and its faith. That is why her oldest feast is celebrated within the octave of Christmas, of Emmanuel, of God with us: for all devotion to Mary is a corollary to our devotion to, following of, and worship of Christ.

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS
December 25th
 Today we celebrate the incarnation of Jesus, Our Lord and Savior! How will your family celebrate the birth of Christ?
January 1st
 Today we celebrate Our Blessed Mother, Mary. She said "Yes" to the Lord with faith in His plan. May we all have such faith and love for our Father.
January 8th
 On this great feast we celebrate the coming of the Magi. Yet the King they come to honor lives in obscurity and poverty. This king was born to lift up and save the lives of the poor as the Psalm reminds us. This king will govern with justice! As this New Year begins, can we make a resolution to show homage to Christ by loving and serving the poor as he does? Can we praise Him by practicing works of charity and justice?

MATCHING GIFT COLLECTION
 Thank you to all those who participated in our Matching Gift collection last month. We exceeded our $20,000 goal and raised a total of $40,376.56!
